FINDING COMFORT, CLARITY AND PURPOSE

The word of God changes the darkest situation. Following the tragic loss of his beloved wife, Tesfaye found himself in a state of despair and hopelessness. Unable to cope with the challenges of life, he relinquished the care of his son to his concerned family. Tesfaye shared his heartache and struggles with a compassionate missionary he met on the street, who offered him the World Missionary Press booklet Help from Above. Tesfaye went home, read, and reread the teachings of the booklet finding comfort, clarity and a renewed sense of purpose. His heart gradually opened to the transformative love the Lord Jesus Christ, culminating in spiritual surrender and acceptance. Tesfaye experienced a miraculous turn around in his life. His business flourished, his mind regained clarity, and his heart overflowed with love and gratitude as he embraced his role as a father and joyfully reunited with his son.

LED IN PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

A church outreach in Ejidal, Mexico, invited children to study the World Missionary press booklet Who do You Say I Am? Juanita came to the graduation service and responded to the alter call. "My son was becoming rebellious and was saying that he wanted to become a hit man for the drug cartels to earn a lot of money, buy cars and a home. Those comments had me worried because many children take bad paths when they reach their adolescence, and I do not want my children to end up in the wrong place. Since he came to the church, he has changed. Every day he would read his book. He became another child. He does not answer back and spoke to me about God. He told me to come to church since He was to graduate. I have also received Jesus in my heart as my savior."

A WAITRESS HEART OPENS TO FAITH

Betlehem diligently worked as a waitress in a cozy café, serving patrons and attending to their needs with care and dedication. One ordinary day a missionary crossed paths with her and instead of a tip offered her a World Missionary Press booklet titled "Help From Above." Intrigued by the unexpected gift, Bethlehem took the booklet home and began to read. As she immersed herself in the words of faith and guidance, her heart was gradually touched by the overwhelming grace and love of God. She bravely dialed the contact number in the booklet, made contact with the missionary, and started attending church. Moved by the presence of God's grace and the guidance of the missionary, Bethlehem embraced Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. Bethlehem's heart was opened to faith, hope, and the everlasting love of the Lord.

I HEARD THE VOICE OF GOD SPEAKING

A friend invited me to come to this EHC luncheon, where World Missionary Press Scripture booklets were handed out. I heard the voice of God speaking to me. He told me that He wanted to give me all his love, all I needed was to come to his arms and He would give me rest, I would be hugged by him, loved by him, He wanted to walk with me and make me feel loved. He told me he gave his life for me because He loved me profoundly, with a love that surpasses all human thoughts. I remember these words and I cry because I know that it was God who cured my wounds, and now I am no longer an unwanted, unloved orphan, I feel loved, I am a renewed person, changed by love and through God's power.

You to can hear the voice of God. To order free Scripture booklets call 1-800-422-W.O.R.D. Or order online at wmpress.org/order.

BOOKLETS IN THE LANGUAGE OF THE POOR

World Missionary Press booklets spread the word of God through the hands of people in their home communities. Living about a 2-hour drive north of Cape Town, South Africa, Ruan wrote, "We do outreach ministry and after ministering to people, we leave them with The Way to God booklet. Afrikaans, Xhosa, Zulu, and Shona are some of the most prominent languages spoken among the poor in South Africa. The booklets give us the opportunity to minister to them in their own languages. Our ministry includes hospitals. Since there is little else to do in the hospital, the booklet gives them the opportunity to seek God on their own while no one is with them."

WE BELIEVE GOD WILL MAKE A MIRACLE

Originally a Mayan settlement, one fourth of Tuzantan's population lives in extreme poverty. The La Familia de Dios church decided to start activities for the children of the town, during which the message of God was given to them through the World Missionary Press booklet, "God loves you". This material helped us a lot with the 35 children, since it made the classes more entertaining for them; the kids paid much attention to this new form of class. A face filled with happiness and interest in knowing more about God could be seen in the kids' faces. We know that the word of God can enter homes through the words of a child. We believe that God will reach these children by His mercy, and we believe that one day they will come to God's feet with their whole families. We believe in this promise and that God will make a miracle in this place.

THE LORD OF THE HARVEST WENT BEFORE US

God often orchestrates the distribution of World Missionary Press literature. In Zimbabwe, the largest sect in the country is synchronistic. People flock there because they believe in the prevalence of the spirits, witches, or unseen forces interfering with their lives. They believe they must go to a "man of God" who will then pray for them. The whole concept is phrased as "getting help." The only booklet in the Shona language available at the time of our outreach was "Help from Above". The Lord knew that one day this little booklet would be able to touch the hearts of lost men and women from these animistic churches, and that it can answer their questions, and provide solutions to their challenges. This booklet sailed amongst those people. They loved it. It spoke to their issues. It was God sent. The Lord of the harvest went before us, and He directs the work of the harvest on the field.
