SEPTEMBER 2024

My Friends and Prayer Partners,

A friend asked, "When people pray for healing, why is one healed and another dies? If God is going to do what He wants anyway, why pray?"

In answer, the date of our death is rarely changed by prayer. (King Hezekiah being one exception. 2 Kings 20) Once God begins to fearfully and wonderfully make us, our days are numbered on His "planner" until precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints (Psalm 139:14; 90:12; 116:15).

Imagine a husband is coughing, and feverish, but says nothing to his wife. She can hear and feel his symptoms and force remedies upon him. But when he asks "Could you put a cold clothe on my forehead? Do we have any cough medicine?" the relationship moves to a new intimacy. Those requests indicate he trusts her, believes she cares, and welcomes her help.

Our prayers tell God the same things. Sure God can do as He pleases, but when we pray we are no longer victims of His sovereignty, but partners in it. God explains, For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. (Jeremiah 29:11-13) God always wants our best. We can trust His sovereignty. Whether our journey goes through the valley of death, or we are healed to lie down in green pastures, prayer communicates that we go with the Shepherd and He goes with us.
