PEACE AT LAST

Sometimes the Holy Spirit faithfully works on a heart for years. Keza practiced witchcraft in the mountains of Rwanda, deceiving many women with potions and empty promises. However, in her heart she often felt a sense of guilt and fear. Even though she'd never read God's Word, she felt that if she didn't believe in Jesus, she would die without hope. But for years she pushed these thoughts away, telling herself that one day she'd receive Jesus, just not now.

But one day when Keza was 78 years old, missionaries visited her home and gave her a Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. The words of Christ inside stirred her heart with regret over her sin. She repented and believed in Jesus that day, and at last her heart was filled with peace and freedom.

THE ONE TRUE GOD

Our God is above all other gods. Uwimana was raised in a Rwandan family who worshipped many gods. Every year her father offered an animal sacrifice to their ancestors. When she was grown, she married a man who trusted in witchcraft and forbade any church involvement or Christian influence.

One day evangelists came to Uwimana's home and shared a Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press with her husband. He told them he was not ready to accept their God, but he graciously allowed Uwimana to make her own decision. The evangelists shared the gospel with her, and when she learned about God's rich blessings for His children, she repented and believed in Jesus. Her life became filled with joy and peace in knowing the one true God. Now she prays for her husband's salvation as well.

One day as she was cleaning her house, she came across an old Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press called The Way to God. She had no idea how it got there, but she paused to read it. The words of Scripture inside changed her life. She put her trust in Christ for salvation, and He filled her heart with peace and assurance in her new identity. LOVING NEIGHBORS IN LA

You can make a difference for Christ in your local community. Nan regularly shares the gospel in Los Angeles. One of her favorite gospel resources is Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press. The How to Know God booklet allows her to reach people in crowded areas when she doesn't have time to talk one on one. If she gets to speak with new believers, she shares A Bible Study on John to disciple them as they grow in the Lord. One more favorite is Alive in Christ, which she shares with struggling Christians to deepen their faith and encourage their hearts. Once a month, Nan also works with a ministry that provides homeless people with hot food, worship, and prayer. She loves sharing Scripture booklets there too so that each person can read God's Word for themselves.

SCRIPTURE IN SCHOOL

Faithful prayer yields much. A Christian principal in Malawi was burdened for the spiritual lives of his students. 90% of the school's books were secular because Christian materials were very expensive. But God answered his prayer with a donation of World Missionary Press Scripture booklets. Enough were sent that every student could not only read them, but also take one home for personal study. And because the booklets ship for free, the principal could order more every year. The students were overjoyed to receive the gift of God's Word. One said, "These booklets are the most precious thing in my life!" Another said, "Today is one of the happiest days in my life because I received booklets free of charge. I'm praising God for His precious blessings to our school."

DWELLING IN UNITY

Psalm 133 tells us that God desires His children to work together in unity. Jim from Honduras took this to heart when he started an outreach ministry with local pastors. Their goal is to pray together and organize donations and gospel distribution in their community. One of their key resources for gospel literature is Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press. They've had unique opportunities to share them in large numbers. For example, one group was able to share Scripture booklets with cars stopped at police checkpoints. Another group left booklets with a grocery store manager that put one into each shopping bag. The Lord has blessed this unified effort with many salvation testimonies and church growth. Jim is praising the Lord for the chance to share His truth with the world.
